Theme: Imagination

May 4

“May the Fourth be With You”

Rev. KC Marie Pandell &
Mary Carter-Vail, DRE

We begin our new monthly theme with an exploration of "The Force" as Love, the Center of our Unitarian Universalist values. But what might "living the Force" actually look like? Bring your sacred curiosity and join our Dir. of Religious Exploration Mary Carter-Vail and Rev. KC for an intergenerational service which will include opportunities for embodied spiritual exploration. Service will include a welcoming ceremony for our new members.

May 11

“Practicing the Future”

Rev. KC Marie Pandell

Inspired by the likes of Black scifi author Octavia Butler, adrienne maree brown says that "science fiction is simply a way to practice the future together." What does "practicing the future" look like outside of fiction, in the real world we currently inhabit, and how do we do it together in faith communities?

May 18

“Dangerous Minds”

Rev. KC Marie Pandell

Sometimes imagination gets the better of us, and the things we imagine in our mind can far exceed the truth of something. Imagination can both liberate, and imprison. How do we hold the line between imagination when it might do more harm than good?

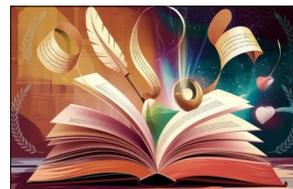

May 25

“The Beauty & Bounty of Poetry”

SUUF Poets

Poetry is part of a universal language. Summit poets will share some of their own poetry and that of well-known poets to show how poetry is a full part of every aspect of human experience.

The Mission Statement of Summit Unitarian Universalist Fellowship

In spiritual community, we commit ourselves to building a compassionate, just and sustainable world.

If you missed a service, or would like to see it again, you can watch it on our SUUF MEDIA YouTube Channel!

KC's Korner ~ Reverend KC Marie Pandell

Dear Summitarians and Friends:

One of the things that initially attracted me to Unitarian Universalism (and, I imagine, some of you, as well) is the upholding of the democratic process in our faith community. The idea that we run ourselves, not some unknown figurehead all the way in Boston, is pretty darn cool, and something I personally love telling folks about when asked "What's Unitarian Universalism?"

If Summit is your first, or only, UU community, you may not be aware of just how far reaching our democratic process extends. You'll see it exhibited in June during our Congregational Meeting, of course. If you attended this year's Pacific Southwest Service Area's 3rd Annual Assembly at First UU at the end of April, you saw a little bit of the process on a larger scale. But even more exciting, especially if you're a "seeing how the sausage is made" type, is General Assembly, our annual gathering of ALL Unitarian Universalists globally. While last year proved to be a big one (we were, after all, talking about rewording some things that feel deeply sacred to UU's), this year still brings another opportunity to exercise our right to shape our faith's future, and that includes you (yes, YOU!).

GA is in Baltimore this year, with Mary and I ready and set to spend a week with UU's from all sorts of places, and all walks of life. This will be my first in person GA since becoming a UU almost nine years ago, and I am unbelievably stoked about all the beloveds I will finally see face to face.

GA is open to anyone wishing to attend, and there are both in person and virtual options. It comes with the opportunity to attend lectures, workshops, and daily worship, in spaces crafted for people who think and love like us. Most crucial, though, is the opportunity to vote: Summit, as a congregation of about 100 folks, receives 5 GA votes: Mary and I, as religious professionals, with the remaining three allotted to members. If having a real say in the future of this faith is something that interests you, please reach out to Debbie or me, and let's have a chat! If you're not into attending the whole shebang online, and can't attend in person, there is a business-only attendee option we'd love to help get you signed up for.

Being able to have a say in what we do as a faith is one trillion times cooler than most things I've ever gotten to do.

In these uncertain times, I hope a few of you would like to join us in shaping the Good News of UUism to come.

All my love and blessings,

Rev. KC

PRESIDENTIAL PONDERINGS

~ DEBBIE WINGARD, BOARD PRESIDENT ~

Dear Friends,

This month's message is an update of last month, as the message is still timely. We have heard a lot during the pledge drive about sharing our TREASURE.

Thanks to everyone who has already returned a pledge form! We have many generous members and friends.♥ We are still waiting to hear from several of you, however, and we are still significantly short of our goal. At this point the Board and Finance Committee are struggling to figure out where we can cut expenses or if we will need to use some of our savings to have a balanced budget. So, if you haven't done so already, please return a pledge form ASAP! If you have returned one, thank you! If there is any way you might be able to increase your pledge, please let Nelwyn know.

As the pledge drive wraps up, let's turn our thoughts to also sharing our TALENTS! In about two weeks you will receive a survey asking about your talents and where you might like to share them with our beloved community. That might be volunteering for a committee (very UU!) or helping Mark maintain our Summit grounds (maintenance or gardening) or volunteering for a one-time project or task force (revising our website). As they say, it takes a village!

We also want to share our talents and treasure with the wider community. Watch for suggestions from the Social Justice in Action Committee or join them to help plan and organize events!

Wishing everyone a wonderful Spring,

Debbie

An Announcement from the Summit Board:

We Love Animals, however....

Some members and friends have allergies. Some are afraid of dogs, maybe because they have had an unfortunate interaction or are a child much smaller than many dogs! Some animals are not good with other animals (or small children). Finally, animals on campus increase Summit's potential liability. Upon reflection, the Board has set the following policy:

Sunday Services:

Service animals always welcome.

Well-behaved family animals welcome at animal blessing services (once or twice a year) as long as under leash control or in a pet carrier.

Committees and Meetings:

Service animals always welcome.

Well-behaved family animals welcome, if all participating agree.

SUMMIT'S MUSIC PROGRAM

DUNCAN MATTHEW, MUSIC DIRECTOR

LIFESPAN FAITH FORMATION NEWS

MARY CARTER-VAIL, DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION

Last Sunday our Religious Exploration group made bug or fairy houses out of natural materials found in the Summit Garden. We were exploring the joy in nature and using our imagination to create whimsical structures for our bug friends. Imagination is one of the gifts that young children share with us when we are willing to take the time to witness their magic. Welcome to our month of exploring imagination.

Imagination: Our theme for this month is the Practice of Imagination. Our goal this month is to highlight how imagination enhances so many aspects of our lives. Imagination is not just an escape from “real life.” It also brings new life to our everyday lives. Imagination is an invitation to spiritual practice when we take the time to make meaning of the wonder and awe in our everyday lives. There will be an opportunity for each of us to explore new spiritual practices at the RE service on May 4th. There will be Imagination Stations to explore as a way to find new practices to expand or affirm personal spiritual practices.

Your Spiritual Practice of Imagination: How is this a powerful spiritual practice for you? In what ways do you actively seek the experience of Imagination? Be open to the gifts that imagination has to offer and take some time to dream and imagine this month.

Soul Work: Our Soul Work table will continue to be part of the cozy corner in the Sanctuary. If you have an idea to share, let Mary know so we can expand some of the activities on the table. Meanwhile, there is always something available to work with during the service. Take something to your seat as you listen to the service. The Soul Work Table and Cozy Corner are for all ages so please enjoy!

Join us for All Ages Faith Formation at Summit: VOLUNTEERS NEEDED! We are growing our Religious Exploration program and expanding to an all-ages Faith Formation program. Join us and consider being part of this important part of our congregational life. (Volunteers who work with children will need to be background checked and take Mandated Reporter training.) Contact Mary at summitdre@gmail.com to explore ways you can be part of Faith Formation at Summit.

Our May Theme is the Practice of Imagination:

We will be gathering in RE at 10am on Sundays for our Religious Exploration activities. Our children and youth will participate in the service until after the “Time for All Ages” story. We will then split into age centered groups to engage in our activities in the Religious Exploration area and/or outside (depending on weather conditions). After the service, we will be joining our families in the Salon for sustenance & community social time. Nursery childcare will be available until 12 noon.

May 4th – May the Fourth be with You: Imagine the force of Love as we explore spiritual practice together – We begin our new monthly theme with an exploration of “The Force” as Love, the Center of our Unitarian Universalist values. But what might “living the Force” actually look like? Bring your sacred curiosity and join our Dir. of Religious Exploration Mary Carter-Vail and Rev. KC for an intergenerational service which will include opportunities for embodied spiritual exploration.

May 11 – Using Imagination to Help Others & Find Hope – This week we use our imagination to explore ways to inspire hope. Mother’s Day was originally created as mothers acted for peace. We will create a Peace Banner and use our imaginations to envision a world where all are valued and loved.

May 18 - Using Imagination to Think Outside the Box – This week we turn to how we can use our imaginations to think outside the box. It will be a time of engaging our creative problem-solving skills and celebrating the deeply human love of figuring out puzzles, both actual puzzles and “life puzzles.”

May 25 - Using Imagination to Understand –
Today, we turn to how we can use our imaginations to help us understand other people. We have several games to play and a special snack to create together as we celebrate our differences as strength.

These are the plans at the beginning of the month, and they may be adapted as our community needs change, so please watch the weekly Children's Religious Exploration Email. To receive the weekly email, send your email address to Mary at summitdre@gmail.com.

With deepest love and brightest blessings,

Mary

WELCOMING & MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

Getting Involved at Summit

Summit continues to be exciting! It has been great to see the sanctuary filling up with members, friends and visitors. Many of our new visitors are families with children. I enjoy watching them integrate with us as they continue to return. Our recent "Getting to Know Us" event had 22 people in attendance, including Summit members and guests. I'm also inviting everyone to join us at our May 4th service, as we welcome a group of new members.

Summit runs on its volunteers - without them, it would not be the place it is. If you would like to get more involved in the life of Summit, consider finding a place to help on a Sunday. Or perhaps you would like to explore or try something new about developing your spirituality. Throughout the year there will be opportunities to do this outside of the regular service.

You could also give Summit's leadership ideas of what you would like to see happening at Summit. This might include classes and activities you'd like to see for everyone to enjoy. The bottom line is that Summit won't happen without you and your input. Thanks to everyone for their role in making Summit what it is.

☞ SOCIAL JUSTICE IN ACTION ☞

Summit's Social Justice in Action Committee invests in microloans through the Kiva organization, typically to women in third world counties working in plant-based agriculture. These loans are repaid and reinvested on a regular basis. Here is information on one recent loan of $100 made to Inés Carolina.

Inés Carolina's story

Inés is a young entrepreneur. Her warmth and her interaction with the youth in her community have made her a natural leader. Like her parents, Inés works growing cacao, a job she learned from them as a very young girl. This is how she makes a living. She is promoting organic farming among the youth, so that they care for their crops without the use of chemicals that alter their production and quality. Inés wants to expand her crops. For that reason, she seeks a loan to buy agricultural supplies that will help her further boost organic farming, and acquire land. Her dream for the future is to have financial stability in order to provide a better future to her child.

More about this loan

This loan is part of VisionFund Ecuador's effort to reach vulnerable populations located along Ecuador's frontier with Colombia. This region generally lacks access to financial services and is populated by many Colombian refugees seeking asylum from guerrilla warfare. This loan is designed to help these vulnerable populations improve their lives and set up sustainable businesses.

About VisionFund Ecuador:

VisionFund Ecuador is a microenterprise development fund that supports groups of entrepreneurs who lack access to formal financial systems. The organization works with vulnerable populations, especially women, in the marginalized urban and rural sectors of Ecuador. Its clients work in a variety of sectors including agriculture, artisan crafts, and the commercial and service sectors. Kiva lenders' funds are used to expand the organization's services to the poor living in more rural parts of Ecuador.

The Social Justice in Action Committee meets at noon in the Summit library on the second Sunday of each month. All members and friends interested in taking action on enhancing justice, freedom and the environment are invited to join us. If you would like to learn more, contact summitsjia@gmail.com. Everyone welcome!

The next SJiA meeting will be Sunday, May 11, at 12 Noon in the Library and on zoom at <https://zoom.us/j/98852027774>

As a Welcoming Congregation, all members, parents, friends, and allies of the LGBTQ+ community are welcome at Summit. We build and sustain relationships with local LGBTQ groups and organizations. For information please reach out to bkindbstrong@gmail.com
